Founded in 1965, the University of Southern Indiana is located in Evansville, the state’s third-largest city. From its picturesque site on the Ohio River, Evansville is a comfortable drive from the major metropolitan areas of Indianapolis, Cincinnati, Louisville, Nashville, and St. Louis.

The University enrolls 10,050 students and offers undergraduate majors in 70 areas of study. Several graduate degree programs also are available.

Beyond the classroom, students have opportunities to participate in more than 80 organizations offering co-curricular and extra-curricular activities. Special interest clubs, student government, sororities and fraternities, music and drama groups, and other organizations enable the students to enjoy and contribute to campus life.

USI offers two kinds of housing. One is the conventional apartment and the other is suite-style housing in a residence hall. Computer labs, laundromats, a convenience store, outdoor recreational areas, and student lounges contribute to an efficient living environment that has proven overwhelmingly popular with students. A meal plan is available in the University Center. More than 3,000 students live on campus.

USI is the most affordable four-year institution in the state of Indiana, and some families find that they can handle the cost of a USI education without financial aid. Many others qualify for need-based financial aid packages, including grants, loans, and jobs.

H. Ray Hoops, President

H. Ray Hoops became the second president of the University of Southern Indiana in July 1994. During his tenure, he has forged important community partnerships and has overseen dramatic growth in the University's enrollment, facilities, and academic programs.

A native of Illinois, Dr. Hoops received his undergraduate degree from Eastern Illinois University and master's and doctoral degrees in Audiology and Speech Sciences from Purdue University. He also completed an M.B.A. at Moorhead State University.

His career as a scientist and educator has included a faculty appointment jointly at the University of Michigan and Wayne State University.

He published extensively and was nationally recognized for his contributions in the areas of rehabilitation of post-surgical patients with cancer of the larynx and in the analysis of language dynamics resulting from brain damage. Among his numerous publications in a variety of behavioral and medical journals was the report on a study which received the National Research Award, the highest honor of the American Speech and Hearing Association. Dr. Hoops also was named Fellow of the Association.

His administrative appointments included the directorship of the Division of Marketing in the U.S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare. He received two national service awards for that work. He also was a Senior Fulbright-Hayes Research Scholar in the College of Medicine at the University of the Philippines. Other appointments included dean of the Graduate College of the University of Northern Iowa, associate vice chancellor for Academic Affairs for the Oregon State System of Higher Education, vice president for Academic Affairs at North Dakota State University, and president of South Dakota State University.

In the six years prior to becoming the president of the University of Southern Indiana, Dr. Hoops served as the vice chancellor for Academic Affairs at the University of Mississippi. While at Ole Miss, Dr. Hoops received the National Council of State Governments Association Award for his pioneering work on Project '95, a blueprint for the reform of education in the state of Mississippi. He also received the Peterson's Guide Award for contributions to the education of minority students in the innovative and highly successful graduate participation initiative.

President Hoops serves on the Deaconess Hospital Board of Directors, the Welborn Foundation Board of Directors, the Metropolitan Evansville Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors, and the WNIN Board of Directors. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the American Association of State Colleges and Universities and serves as the chair of the Indiana Conference of Higher Education.

Jon Mark Hall, Director of Athletics

Jon Mark Hall was appointed to the position of director of athletics in January of 2002. He moved into the position after spending seven years as the assistant director of athletics. He is the second director of athletics that USI has had.

Under his direction, USI was the 2003-04 GLVC All-Sports and Commissioner's Cup winner and is the host of the 2004 NCAA Division II Cross Country national championships.

In addition to his duties as director of athletics, Hall also is the chair of the NCAA Division II men's and women's tennis committee. He has served on the Great Lakes Valley Conference Executive Committee and the NCAA II Great Lakes Regional women's basketball committee.

Hall joined the USI Athletic Department in 1995 as an assistant athletic director and men's tennis coach.

As the men's tennis coach, no one did it better in the GLVC than Hall. He was named the GLVC Coach of the Year five times, directed the Screaming Eagles to four GLVC regular season titles and GLVC Tournament crowns and set a 123-47 record (.724).

During his final season as head coach, Hall led the Eagles to their third straight appearance in the NCAA II Tournament and their first victory in the post-season. In 2000 and 2001, Hall put the Eagles on the national map with their first two invitations to the NCAA II Tournament in the 27-year history of the program.

Hall came to USI after a tenure at the University of South Carolina-Spartanburg as an assistant athletic director, where he was the NCAA compliance coordinator, oversaw the academic support service program for student athletes, and coordinated the Athletes Can Educate (ACE) program. He also assisted in fund-raising and promotion activities.

The native of Murray, Kentucky, is a 1990 cum laude graduate of Murray State University, with a bachelor's degree in business administration. While at MSU, Hall was on the tennis team for two seasons, earning Academic All-Ohio Valley Conference honors in 1987. Hall received his master's degree in sports administration from Ohio State University in 1992.

In 1998-99, he completed the Sports Management Institute Executive Program at the University of South Carolina and the University of Notre Dame.

Hall and his wife Patti reside in Evansville and have two sons, Nathan and Garland, and daughter Mary Claire.
“USI has a good athletic program as well as a good academic program.”

— Chris Thompson, Junior

“USI is a good school and has a very positive basketball program. I feel that I have a great chance to do well here, academically and athletically.”

— Guy Scott, Freshman

“I chose USI because a good percentage of their athletes get their degree and because of the winning tradition the basketball program has.”

— Ayton Branch, Senior
One question comes to mind when you think of the University of Southern Indiana men’s basketball program: How do you define “success?”

In the case of the Screaming Eagles, success can be described in different ways.

One way to define success is victories. The Eagles have averaged more than 25 victories a year since 1992-93 and have won 25 or more games nine times since 1993-94. USI ranks eighth among all Division I, II, and III institutions in wins per season since 1992-93.

The program also has won 20 or more games for 12 straight seasons and 13 times in 15 years.

A second way to define success is championships. Since 1992-93, the Eagles have won three GLVC crowns in a conference that has had a team in the NCAA II Tournament Championship game each of the last 11 years (three featuring USI); three NCAA II Great Lakes Regional titles; and the 1994-95 National Championship.

The key to the continued success is leadership. Head Coach Rick Herdes has led the Eagles to a 75-22 record, a .773 winning percentage, in three seasons.

Although Herdes has a strong base of five returning players, he faces a tough job of replacing seven seniors, including three starters. The departing players from last year’s squad represented 57 percent of the offensive output on the 2003-04 team.

Leading the way for the returning Eagles are a pair of seniors—guard Cris Brunson and forward/center Randy Holbrook. Brunson, a Street & Smith preseason honorable mention All-American, was the NCAA II Great Lakes Regional Most Outstanding Player and was named to the Elite Eight All-Tournament team after leading the Eagles in the post-season with 16.1 points per game (ppg).

For the season, Brunson was fourth on the team with 10.8 ppg and set a USI single-season record for free-throw shooting by hitting 90.6 percent from the line (58-64).

Holbrook, who was USI’s CBS/Chevrolet Player of the Game in the national championship contest, was third on the team in scoring with 11.1 ppg and rebounding with 5.2 rebounds per game (rpg). During the Elite Eight, he led the team on the boards with 6.0 rpg and posted 10 ppg.

Returning for his second season for the Eagles is sophomore forward Geoff Van Winkle. Van Winkle, the GLVC Freshman of the Year in 2003-04, ranked first on the team and seventh in the GLVC with 72 three-point field goals made, just seven short of the USI single-season record.

Van Winkle averaged 8.7 ppg (10.1 ppg during the conference schedule) and 2.7 rpg as a freshman.

USI also is looking forward to the return of senior center Reque Newsome. Newsome, who missed last season due to a broken foot, averaged 6.5 ppg and 4.0 rpg as a junior in 2002-03.

A key for the Eagles will be to replace starting point guard Avery Queen and back-up point guard Mike Arnold. To fill the holes, USI welcomes junior...

guards David Bryant, and Danny Gibson, as well as freshman guard Carl Richburg.

Bryant is a transfer from Mineral Area Community College where he recorded 12.8 ppg and 4.7 assists per game (apg) as a sophomore, while Gibson posted 10.8 ppg and 4.8 apg last year at Olney Community College.

Richburg, a first team All-Cincinnati performer, averaged 19.9 ppg and 5.1 apg as a senior at Mason High School.

To add depth to the two-guard position with the graduation of Joe Gordon, the Eagles have added junior guard/forward Stacy Pearson. Pearson averaged 21.6 ppg and 9.4 rpg at Brevard Community College in 2002-03.

Along the frontcourt, the Eagles have added three newcomers—junior forwards Chris Thompson and Eric Washington as well as freshman forward John Hoover—to the arsenal for 2004-05.

Hoover travels across Evansville from Central High School where he helped the Bears to a 20-5 overall record, the Evansville Sectional Championship, and the SIAC Tournament Championship.

The Academic All-State selection was honorable mention All-State and was named to the All-Metro first team after averaging a team-high 15.2 ppg and was second on the team with 7.0 rpg.

Hoover, who was Hoosier Basketball preseason third team All-State, shot 50 percent from the field (113-225) and 42.0 percent from long range (14-33) in 2003-04. He also was invited to the IHSAA Top 100 Showcase.

Thompson and Washington join the USI squad after sitting out last season.

Thompson recorded 22.0 ppg and 11.0 rpg at Pasco-Hernando Community College two years ago. He was the first PHCC player ever to be named NJCAA preseason All-American and first team All-State, and set the PHCC all-time records for scoring with 1,248 points and 654 rebounds.

Thompson played his high school basketball at Bradford High School in Starke, Florida, and was second team All-State as a senior, averaging 24.2 ppg.

Washington, who left San Jose State University after playing eight games in 2001-02, returns to his Indiana roots where he won two state championships at Lafayette Catholic in 1999 and 2000.
Rick Herdes (Noble, Illinois) provided USI basketball fans with a marvelous March in just his third season as the head coach of the men’s basketball program.

During 2003-04, Herdes directed the Screaming Eagles back to Division II’s center stage as the NCAA II Elite Eight finalist and the Great Lakes Regional Champions. He was named the Division II Bulletin Coach of the Month for December when he led the Eagles to an 11-0 start last year and to the program’s seventh NUMBER ONE ranking in 10 seasons. Herdes’ Eagles also finished the season one win short of the school record with a 28-7 overall mark.

The 28 wins in 2003-04 has USI ranked eighth among NCAA Division I, II, and III men’s basketball programs with 25.5 victories per season since 1992-93.

In his second season at the helm of the men’s basketball program, Herdes took the Eagles back to the big dance and to within three points of the NCAA Division II Elite Eight.

Herdes directed the Eagles to a 25-7 overall record, a 16-4 mark in the GLVC, and the Great Lakes Regional finals after defeating No. 1 Michigan Tech University in the semifinals. The squad, which also boosted an honorable mention All-American, two All-Region performers, and three All-GLVC players, advanced in the sweet 16 of the national tournament for the seventh time in nine seasons.

In his first season at the helm of the Eagles, Herdes had a record-tying year. The Eagles posted a 22-8 overall record, tying the USI record for wins by a first-year coach. He also led the Eagles to a fourth-place finish in the GLVC with a 14-6 mark, advancing to the semifinals of the league’s post-season tournament.

He had been with USI for nine seasons as an associate head coach and assistant coach before being tapped for the top position in 2001. Herdes was widely known as one of the best recruiters and top coaches in Division II basketball. The Eagles’ successes since Herdes’ arrival reflect his abilities.

In his 12 seasons at USI, Herdes has helped direct the Eagles to a 306-68 overall record (.818), the 1995 NCAA II National Championship, the 1994 and 2004 NCAA II National Championship game, three GLVC Championships, 11 NCAA II Tournament appearances, and 12 straight 20-win seasons.

USI’s point man on the recruiting trail, Herdes brought in nearly all of the key players who contributed to USI becoming a national power in Division II. Some of those key recruits were two-time NABC/NCAA Division II Player of the Year Stan Gouard, All-American and GLVC Player of the Year Chad Gilbert, Division II Bulletin All-American Jeremy Pearson, and 2001 first-team All-American Derrick Lyons.

Herdes came to USI from Southern Illinois University Edwardsville, where he was an assistant from 1986 to 1992. While at SIUE, Herdes helped Head Coach Larry Graham lead the Cougars to a 127-56 (.694) record and three NCAA II tournament appearances. He was responsible for coordinating recruiting and was the academic advisor to the basketball team as well as the director of summer camps and fund-raising events.

In 19 collegiate basketball seasons, the programs Herdes has been involved with have a .777 winning percentage (433-124).

In 1991 and 1992 at SIUE, he was the head coach for the Illinois Prairie State Games, Southern Open Men’s Division. His 1992 team received the silver medal.

Prior to working at SIUE, Herdes was an assistant basketball coach and physical education instructor at Lawrenceville (Illinois) High School, where he worked for current Indiana University assistant coach Ron Felling. LHS was the Illinois Class A State Champion in 1982 and 1983 and had a 68-game winning streak. Herdes was inducted into the Illinois High School Athletic Association Hall of Fame in 1998.

Herdes graduated from Graceland College in 1980 with a bachelor’s degree in education. As a player, he led Lincoln Trail College to a ninth-place finish in the national tournament and helped lead Graceland to its first-ever appearance in the NAIA Tournament.

Herdes and his wife Sarah reside in Evansville with his two children, a daughter Taylor (12) and a son Connor (9).
USI Head Coach Rick Herdes

Head Coach Rick Herdes, the Division II Bulletin Coach of the Month for December 2003, has been a part of 433 victories during his collegiate coaching career.

Herdes has had a hand in nearly half of the USI men’s basketball program’s 625 victories. He has helped the Eagles to 306 victories in 12 seasons with the USI men’s basketball program.

In 2003-04, Herdes led the Screaming Eagles back to the NCAA II National Championship game for the first time in 10 years.

He has led the Eagles to back-to-back NCAA II Regional Championship games and has averaged 25 wins per year in his first three seasons at the helm of USI men’s basketball program.

Marc Hostetter (Lyons, Indiana) returns for his fourth season as an assistant coach to Head Coach Rick Herdes.

Hostetter’s third season was highlighted with USI’s return to the NCAA II Elite Eight. The 2003-04 appearance in the championship marked the third time that Hostetter and Herdes have appeared in the title game and Hostetter’s first as a coach.

Hostetter rejoined the USI program after spending two seasons as an assistant coach to Mike Leeder at Longwood College in Virginia. Hostetter helped lead the Lancers to a 23-8 overall record, Longwood’s first-ever Carolinas-Virginia Athletic Conference championship, and an NCAA Division II Tournament appearance.

“Marc has the complete package, both as a person and a coach,” said Coach Herdes. “I recruited Marc to USI, and his knowledge of the system and University as well as the league and Division II basketball is a great asset to my program.”

In 2000-01, Hostetter returned to the USI team he helped lead to the 1995 NCAA Division II National Championship and a 105-17 record in four seasons as a point guard. During Hostetter’s four seasons, the Screaming Eagles were ranked number one nationally at some point during the season in three of four seasons.

After his playing days, Hostetter joined the staff of former USI Head Coach Bruce Pearl for two seasons as an assistant coach. During his two seasons on the bench, USI finished as the GLVC Tournament runners-up twice while making a pair of NCAA II Tournament Sweet 16 appearances.

A 1998 USI graduate, Hostetter returns to Indiana with his wife, the former Nikki Jordan ’98. They have a son Leo.

Robert Ward (Murray, Kentucky) begins his first season as an assistant coach to Head Coach Rick Herdes.

Ward comes to USI after spending the last five years in the high school ranks at Hamilton Ross High School in Hamilton, Ohio, and Bourbon County High School in Paris, Kentucky. He was the Region 10 “Coach of the Year” in 2000-01 at Bourbon County and led the Colonels to a 25-7 record and a top-10 ranking in 2001-02.

During a coaching career that has spanned four decades, Ward has been an NCAA Division I assistant coach at Murray State University (1976-78), Pan American University (1982-84), Arkansas State University (1984-87), and the University of Tennessee-Martin (1991-99). He also was an assistant coach under GLVC legend Joe Reibel at Bellarmine University when the Knights earned a share of the conference title and appeared in the NCAA II Great Lakes Regional Tournament.

Prior to his tenure at Bellarmine, Ward was the head coach at Southeast Community College (1980-82) and Union University (1987-89).

Ward graduated from Murray State with a bachelor’s degree in physical education and health education and a master’s degree in education. He has a daughter Clare and a son Samuel.
Brent Hancock,
Student Strength & Conditioning Coach

Brent Hancock is in his second season as a student strength and conditioning coach for the USI basketball program.

Hancock, an exercise science major at USI, came to USI from North White High School in Monon, Indiana, lettering in basketball, football, and golf. He was an All-White County defensive back during his three years on the football team and an All-Conference performer on the golf team at NWHS.

Aaron Brothers,
Graduate Assistant Coach

Aaron Brothers begins his first year as a graduate assistant coach for the USI basketball program.

Brothers, who is working on his master’s degree in business administration, comes to USI from Indiana Wesleyan University where he earned a bachelor’s degree in business administration and was a member of the men’s basketball program. He completed his collegiate career as IWU’s third all-time leading scorer.

Prior to attending IWU, Brothers was a two-sport letter winner at Memorial High School in Evansville.

Rick Herdes and Marc Hostetter have teamed throughout the years to lead the Screaming Eagles to new heights.

Herdes, as an assistant coach, and Hostetter, as a player, helped lead the Eagles to a national championship in 1995 and the NCAA II title game in 1994. During Hostetter’s playing days, the two were a part of 105 victories.

As a coaching tandem, Herdes and Hostetter have led USI to back-to-back Sweet 16 appearances as well as last season’s NCAA II title game.

Combined, Herdes and Hostetter have led the Eagles to 180 victories, and only 39 losses.
The USI men’s basketball program is a major part of the Evansville community—taking on many charity and community service projects.

Screaming Eagles fly around the USA and beyond

The University of Southern Indiana men's basketball teams have traveled the continental United States and beyond since 1990. USI has played regular-season games, regular-season tournaments, and post-season contests in Alaska, Arkansas, the Bahamas, California, Florida, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Massachusetts, Maryland, Missouri, Nevada, Ohio, Tennessee, and Wisconsin.

USI has played twice in the prestigious Division II Tip-Off Classic at Disney's Wide World of Sports in Orlando, Florida, and four times in the High Desert Classic in Las Vegas, Nevada.

In December 2004, the Eagles travel to Big Rapids, Michigan, to play in the Lions Club Holiday Classic. USI also will travel to Cincinnati, Ohio, in November to take on the University of Cincinnati.

USI All-GLVC History

With two All-GLVC selections in 2003-04, the USI men’s basketball program has had a player named to the All-GLVC squad 52 times in the program’s 34-year history.

Player-of-the-Year
- Monta McGhee, Lewis

Coach-of-the-Year
- Jim Whitesell, Lewis

Freshman-of-the-Year
- Geoff Van Winkle, Southern Indiana
During the last 25 years, the University of Southern Indiana men's basketball program has become a force in the Great Lakes Valley Conference, the Great Lakes Region, and at the national level.

Since the beginning of the GLVC in 1979, the Screaming Eagles have become one of the premier teams in the league, winning nine regular-season titles in the GLVC. USI’s teams also have featured three GLVC Coaches of the Year and five conference Players of the Year.

Starting with the 1992-93 USI team, the Eagles have made their mark on the Great Lakes Region and the NCAA Division II. USI has won 20 or more games 13 times in the last 15 years, and averaged more than 25 victories a year since 1993-94.

The Eagles stepped into the national spotlight in 1993-94 when they made their first trip to the NCAA Division II Elite Eight and the NCAA Division II Championship game.

The loss in the 1994 championship game propelled USI back into the NCAA Division II Championship game in 1995, and on to its first-ever national championship.

USI has been ranked number one nationally at one point during the season in seven of the last 10 years and has been to the NCAA Division II Sweet 16 eight times in the last 10 years.
Chris Bowles—The 1994 Division II Bulletin Player of the Year, All-American, and GLVC Player of the Year who led the Screaming Eagles to the 1994 NCAA Division II Championship game.

Tyrone Tate—The 1994 All-American who set an NCAA Division II record with 49 assists in the tournament, including 16 assists in each of the first two Elite Eight games. Tate also was the GLVC Newcomer of the Year in 1993.

Stan Gouard—The 1995 and 1996 NCAA Division II Player of the Year and two-time All-American led the Eagles to their first national championship in 1995. He also was the CBS Player of the Game in the 1994 championship game when he scored 30 points.

Chad Gilbert—The 1996 All-American also was the GLVC Player of the Year in USI’s league championship run. Gilbert also was the 1995 NCAA II Great Lakes Region Most Outstanding Player.

John Hollinden (right) was the second player in USI history to earn All-America honors. Hollinden played with the Eagles from 1979 to 1981.
AT 25 YEARS
Physical Activities Center

The Physical Activities Center (PAC) has been the home of the Screaming Eagles for the past 25 years. Opened in 1980, the PAC accommodates physical education classes, intramural activities, and is the on-campus arena for the USI basketball and volleyball teams.

The center court of the PAC has been the scene for many games of regional and national interest during the past 10 years. USI has hosted the 1993, 1994, and 1996 men's NCAA II Great Lakes Regionals; the 1998 women's GLVC Tournament; the 1998 and 2001 women's NCAA II Great Lakes Regionals; and the 2000 volleyball GLVC Tournament.

A true home court, the USI men’s basketball team has a 358-55 home record since 1980, an .867 winning percentage, while the women’s team has a 138-35 home record since 1993-94, an .800 winning percentage.
