STUDENT LEADERSHIP AWARDS

Student Organization Awards

There are two types of Student Organization Awards: Nomination Based and Application Based. Learn more about each of them below:

President of the Year

This award is to honor a student organization president who has shown exceptional commitment to his/her organization. Qualified candidates will possess strong leadership skills, a high degree of integrity, and have had an overall positive impact on their organization.

Eligibility criteria for 2014

Student organizations can nominate any student who was president of their organization during any portion of the 2013-2014 academic school year.

Advisor of the Year

This award is to honor the student organization advisor who has demonstrated outstanding contributions with his/her time and expertise.

Eligibility criteria for 2014

Student organizations can nominate any individual who has volunteered his/her time to advise the organization outside of their regular duties at the University.

NOMINATE NOW

Silent Inspiration

This award is given to a student who has served his or her organization in an unassuming and quiet manner. This award is for a student who has not yet held a leadership role, but through a commitment of time and energy he or she has made an impact on the organization and the University community.

Eligibility criteria for 2014

The student is nominated by his/her peers or advisor for this award, without the nominee's knowledge.

NOMINATE NOW

Student Organization Initiative Awards

The Student Organization Initiative Awards recognizes student organizations who have sponsored an campus event or taking on an initiative that deserves public recognition. Initiative Categories are:

- Diversity Engagement
- Campus Impact
- Community Outreach
- Campus Collaboration

Eligibility criteria for 2014

Any student organization registered with the Office of Student Development Programs at the University of Southern Indiana may apply or be nominated for this award.
