DID YOU KNOW...?

Even though you aren't using federal financial aid to pay for dual credit courses, the college credits you're enrolling in right now might later impact your access to this important source of college funding? Every dual credit course you complete, or even attempt, as well as college credit hours acquired through successful AP exams, count toward your aid limit (1.5 times the number of hours in the degree program). Work with the CAP Office or a USI advisor so every credit hour is purposeful.

THINKING ABOUT USI AFTER HIGH SCHOOL?

We'd love to have you! As a CAP student, you're already a special member of the USI family, and applying to USI will be easy. To browse all USI degree options, visit USI.edu/academics. Visit USI.edu/apply to get started on your undergraduate application.

INDIANA COLLEGE CORE (ICC)

USI is approved to award the Indiana College Core (ICC) certificate through dual credit; the ICC is a block of 30 credit hours based on six competency areas guaranteed to transfer between Indiana's public institutions. Visit mycollegecore.org to see if your school offers the ICC. If you plan to attend USI, work with USI's ICC advisor, Tim Fitzgibbon, to determine if the ICC is right for you. Visit USI.edu/cap/whyicc to learn more.

INDIANA CORE TRANSFER LIBRARY (CTL)

You can see how USI accepts other college and university credits, or how USI credits will transfer to all public institutions, and some independent colleges, by using the statewide Core Transfer Library (CTL). Many of your dual credit courses are part of this! Courses must be completed with a final grade of C or higher. Locate each USI course's CTL Name at USI.edu/cap/schools to more easily search the CTL at transferin.net/transfer-resources/transfer-databases/core-transfer-library

WHY TALK TO A USI ADVISOR?

You should know that USI students must complete both Core 39 and major/program requirements; some USI majors require specific Core 39 courses. Many CAP courses fulfill a portion of Core 39, but those that don't may count as overall hours needed for graduation. Core 39 can be fulfilled by many USI courses, not just those offered through CAP. Visit USI.edu/core39 for full details or visit USI.edu/cap/advising to learn about course applicability. To view the CAP courses offered in your school, visit USI.edu/cap/schools.

CAP is not responsible for undergraduate advising. Direct your questions to the advisor in the Center for Exploring Majors or to the advising center in the college of your intended major.

IS CAPRIGHT FOR ME?

Are you going to college?

YES
or not sure

NO

Some dual credit (three to nine hours) can help you meet Honors Diploma or Graduation Pathway requirements and give you the confidence to pursue a college degree or certificate. Talk to your counselor about your future plans.

Are you considering USI?

YES

Refer to the CORE 39 Courses on the left to see how CAP fits in USI's general education requirements.

NO

Visit USI.edu/cap/advising to learn more about course transfer.

ANOTHER INDIANA INSTITUTION?

Students considering another Indiana institution, whether public or independent, should visit the Indiana Core Transfer Library (CTL) to investigate transfer credit (www.transferin.net/earned-credits/core-transfer-library). Double-check with your institution's Registrar if a course is listed as non-transferable or if the institution does not appear on the CTL at all.

PRIVATE OR OUT-OF-STATE INSTITUTION?

Some universities have their own transfer credit databases to show how courses from different institutions will apply to a degree. If you're not sure where to start, type "transfer credit" in the search box of the university's website.

Do you know what your major will be?

YES

Search your college or university's website for your major's required course list. Note that some majors require specific general education courses. Those who will attend USI can locate their advisor on the page to the left.

NO

No worries. Most college students change their majors. You can take a few courses that are required for all students while you explore potential majors. Search your college's website for advisors who work with undeclared students.
