

Meet the Team:

Online and Adult Learning

The Online and Adult Learning team supports adult learners at every stage of their journey to a USI degree. From helping you explore programs and navigate admissions to connecting you with resources, we're here to reduce barriers and keep you moving forward. We also work behind the scenes with faculty to ensure your online courses are engaging, accessible, and designed for your success.

Dr. Brian Crose

Assistant Dean of Online and Adult Learning

Dr. Brian Crose leads USI's online and adult learning efforts, working across the university to expand high-quality online programs and strengthen support for adult learners.

Alexandra Medina

Online and Adult Learning Intake Specialist

The Intake Specialist helps you take the first step toward your USI degree by guiding you through program options, admissions, and next steps.

Mariel Cox

Online and Adult Learning Student Support Specialist

The Student Support Specialist connects online and adult learners with resources, guidance, and support to stay on track and succeed in their programs.

Instructional Designers

The Online and Adult Learning Instructional Designers work behind the scenes with faculty to create high-quality online courses that are engaging, accessible, and built with adult learners in mind.

Christine Nelson

Senior Instructional Designer

Jeremy Adams

Instructional Designer

Spence Farmer

Instructional Designer

Natalie Clark

Instructional Designer